Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rittman and son, Frank, returned up from Clayton Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Kiffin's sister, Mrs. L. Erton. Quite a family reunion was held here, as besides the above named, all their children were there, consisting of John Erton and family, Mrs. Clarence Stone and family and Mrs. John Berke and family.

E. L. Gilmore and family passed through here Friday enroute to the Blue Hills on a pleasure and prospecting trip. They came from Stillington, Texas, but he says this is the finest country he has passed through so far.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods and family have moved up near Des Moines.

A heavy rain had had here Sunday. It did no damage that we have heard of.

SENECA

We have been so busy hoeing in the garden and planting crops since the excellent rain that we have had we have had no time to send in our little note. But we are still hoisting this writing.

Mrs. H. J. Rogers and children, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, returning to Clayton, Saturday.

Rev. Chism, who held a week's revival service at "Georgia" has been preaching there all this week. He is having splendid attendance and several have joined the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Elynn Fowl have returned to their homestead. The splendid rains have encouraged them to stick with their claim.

Will Howard and Joe Meyers were in Clayton Saturday receiving some letters from Dewey Pemberton.

Gene Blackwell has the new store and postoffice building nearly completed. The better accommodations will be appreciated by his many patrons.

The Workmen of the World will hold their commemoration services at Graced Chapel, June eighteenth. A splendid service has been arranged a feature of which will be the unveiling of the beautiful monument erected over the grave of Mr. Hensley.

Rev. Rose held services at the Knolls school house, Sunday, but owing to the threatening weather, but few attended.

Athol Thompson has gone to Mt. Dora to work. The grasshoppers and dry weather got the best of his splendid truck patch.

The cattle in this country are in the finest condition possible. The rains have been sufficient to keep the grass green and the cattle are as fat and sleek now as they usually are in mid-summer.

A number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Kennan gathered at their home Saturday, June 3, and helped them celebrate the fifth anniversary of their marriage. A dainty luncheon was served and the evening was passed in an enjoyable manner. The guests departed at a late hour wishing their host and hostess many happy returns of the day.

Yes, we saw a dust off to the south west some time ago but didn't know it was Uncle Jerry cleaning house. You have our sympathy, Jerry, we've you have our sympathy, Jerry, we've "Wideawake."
